From Spring 2005 through November 30, 2005, over 750 NWTC students, from every academic division, applied their knowledge and skills to positively impact 7700 community members. Some of the hands-on activities were one-time events, while others reoccur year after year.
Foot Clinic

- Division: Health Sciences
  Instructor: Jeff Matzke
- Organizations: Community Based Residential Facilities, Senior Centers, Brown County Aging Center, and Community Resource Centers
- Learning activity: Nursing students provided foot care at community nursing homes and/or homes for clients who were unable to do it themselves or could not afford to have it done. An overall assessment of the feet was done, and referrals were made as necessary.
- Number served: 200-250

NWTC students involved in project: 52

Breast Cancer Family Foundation T-Shirt design

- Division: Business and Information Technology
  Instructor: Mary Sue Fenner
- Organization: Breast Cancer Family Foundation
- Learning activity: Marketing and Graphic Communication students designed “breast cancer” t-shirt for the Breast Cancer Family Foundation bike ride.
- Number served: Many

NWTC students involved in project: 12

Vision Screening

- Division: Health Sciences
  Instructor/s: Health Sciences Faculty
- Organization: Prevent Blindness of NE Wisconsin
- Learning activity: Nursing students conducted vision screenings at daycare centers or special events in the community. Findings were given to the Prevent Blindness organization for appropriate follow-up.
- Number served: 180

NWTC students involved in project: 40

Preschool Vision Screening

- Division: Workplace Learning Services
  Instructor: Jean Goodwin
- Organization: Prevent Blindness of NE Wisconsin
- Learning activity: Nursing students tested preschoolers at Marinette/Peshtigo Headstart and other area clinics for acuity and stereopsis. Eight students were referred to Prevent Blindness of NE Wisconsin for follow-up.
- Number served: 80

NWTC students involved in project: 14
Boys & Girls Club Sealant Program

- Division: Health Sciences
- Organizations: Boys & Girls Club of GB, Brown County Health Dept.
- Learning activity: Dental students provided dental screenings, dental sealants, and fluoride varnish treatments to low-income children between 11 – 13 years of age.
- Number served: 59

Instructor: Sheila Gross
NWTC students involved in project: 19

Presentation on Sexually Transmitted Diseases and Contraception

- Division: Health Sciences
- Organizations: Alternative High School students, Brown County Jail, and various Urgent Cares
- Learning activity: Nursing students presented the topic as a practicum for learning content from Nursing Health Promotion.
- Number served: 35

Instructor: Lori Juza, RN MSN
NWTC students involved in project: 2

Diabetes Prevention in the Menominee Tribal School

- Division: Health Sciences
- Organization: Menominee Tribal Wellness Director
- Learning activity: Nursing students educated Menominee children about ways to prevent diabetes by teaching them about proper nutrition and proper exercise.
- Number served: 60

Instructor: Carolyn Seidl
NWTC students involved in project: 8

General Study – Fieldwork Project

- Division: General Studies
- Organizations: Various
- Learning activity: Through various projects, students studied a place, event, or facility that relates to the World of Psychology. For example, some students observed activities at a child care center to study how children learn.
- Number served: Undetermined

Instructor: Sharon Chacon-Mineau
NWTC students involved in project: 75
Service Learning

3rd Annual Nonperishable Architecture Competition

- Division: Trades and Technical
  Instructor: Gary Magee
- Organization: Local food pantries
- Learning activity: Architectural students collected over 6,800 nonperishable food items to build impressive original structures and reproductions. Eleven teams were comprised of six students each in the competition.
- Number served: 6,800 food items

  NWTC students involved in project: 60

Community Service Interns

- Division: Public Safety
  Instructor: Mike Albertson
- Organization: Green Bay Police Department
- Learning activity: Criminal Justice student interns worked with GB Police Dept. in selected neighborhoods doing house checks, working at parks, recovering bicycles, etc.
- Number served: Green Bay community

  NWTC students involved in project: 8

Role play – Green Bay Police Department

- Division: Public Safety
  Instructors: Tom Martin, Mike Albertson, Ian Nishimoto
- Organization: Green Bay Police Department
- Learning activity: Criminal Justice students acted as role players for the GB Police Department as victims, hostages, etc.
- Number served: 132

  NWTC students involved in project: 20

Presentation – “Shopping for a Decision”

- Division: Business & Information Technology
  Instructors: Shelley McDermid and faculty
- Organization: Rainbow House
- Learning activity: Administrative Assistant students scheduled motivational speaker to present choices on decision-making, lifestyles, and life-changing methods for behavior modification to residents of the local domestic abuse shelter.
- Number served: 50+

  NWTC students involved in project: 25+
Neighborhood Housing Services

- Division: Trades & Technical
- Instructor: Gerry Bentzler
- Organization: Neighborhood Housing Services
- Learning activity: Wood Techinique students helped with a distressed property located on Mather Street. They helped with the rehabilitation of the home, learning how to improve existing structures.
- Number served: Low-income family
- NWTC students involved in project: 12+

Massage Clinic

- Division: Health Sciences
- Instructor: Physical Therapy club activity
- Organization: Physical Therapy Assistant program
- Learning activity: PTA club offered massages for students and staff. The students strengthened their hands-on skills, client in-take form skills, and learning interaction skills between clients and therapist.
- Number served: 100+
- NWTC students involved in project: 30

Asthma Camp

- Division: Health Sciences
- Instructor: Kathy Schlitz
- Organization: Green Bay Area Asthma Coalition at Webster Elementary
- Learning activity: Respiratory Care students helped at the 10th Annual Asthma Camp, sponsored by St. Vincent Hospital, with presentations on asthma management and encouragement for kids to stay active in life and sports of their choice.
- Number served: 60+
- NWTC students involved in project: 20

NWTC Blood Drive

- Division: Health Sciences
- Instructor: Mary Rahr
- Organization: American Red Cross Blood Drive
- Learning activity: Medical Assistant students helped with the annual NWTC Blood Drive by serving as greeters, donor room aides, registrars, refreshment volunteers, and floaters.
- Number served: 50+
- NWTC students involved in project: 40+
Service Learning

East High School Lights

- Division: Business & Information Technology
- Instructor: Mary Sue Fenner
- Organization: East High School
- Learning activity: Marketing & Graphic Communication students created designs for lights in special needs classroom. This project offered needed stimulation in the learning environment for students with disabilities who are in a reclining position throughout the day.
- Number served: Many

Educating the Hmong Culture in Dental Needs

- Division: Health Sciences
- Instructor: Kaye Raasch
- Organization: Hmong Community Center
- Learning activity: Dental Hygiene students worked with the Hmong Community Center to reach dental needs in their community. The students used a video tape in Hmong to describe the teeth cleaning procedure and general dental health education.
- Number served: Many

United Hmong Community Center Identity Package

- Division: Business & Information Technology
- Instructor: Mary Sue Fenner
- Organization: United Hmong Center
- Learning activity: Marketing & Graphic Communication students created logo, business card, letterhead and envelopes for the United Hmong Center.
- Number served: The Center

Chantelles Identity Package

- Division: Business & Information Technology
- Instructor: Mary Sue Fenner
- Organization: Chantelles
- Learning activity: Marketing & Graphic Communication students created logo, business card, letterhead and envelopes, posters and postcards for the Chantelles.
- Number served: Group

Asian American Resource Center Identity Package

- Division: Business & Information Technology
- Instructor: Mary Sue Fenner
- Organization: Asian American Resource Centers
- Learning activity: Marketing & Graphic Communication students created logo, business card, letterhead, signage, and print materials for the Asian American Resource Center.
- Number served: Organization
Operation “Biloxi”

- Division: Health Sciences, Business & Information Technology, and Student Services
- Instructor: Respiratory Care Student Club, Pamela Phillips, Judy Kraft, Wisconsin Marketing & Management Association (WMMA)
- Organization: Relief Efforts – Hurricane Katrina
- Learning activity: Students collected and packaged donations and loaded truck with supplies to Biloxi – Hurricane Katrina relief.
- Number served: Hundreds

NWTC students involved in project: 40+

Great American Smoke Out

- Division: Health Sciences
- Instructor: Kathy Schlitz
- Organization: American Cancer Society
- Learning activity: Respiratory Care Practitioner students set up displays, distributed smoking cessation materials, provided education and support to interested students, faculty and staff at NWTC.
- Number served: 100

NWTC students involved in project: 6

Special Needs Practicum

- Division: Community & Regional Learning
- Instructors: Mary Beth Boettcher, Kathy Pickering and Sally Martin
- Organization: Special Needs
- Learning activity: Early Childhood students worked one-on-one with a family to help a special needs child attain an achievable goal with direction from the child’s family.
- Number served: 60

NWTC students involved in project: 20

Legal Ethics Seminar

- Division: Business & Information Technology
- Organization: Attorneys and Paralegals
- Learning activity: Paralegal students helped with a legal ethics seminar that targeted attorneys and paralegals to meet continuing legal education requirements.
- Number served: 30+

NWTC students involved in project: 20
Habitat for Humanity Home at 1018 Day Street

- Division: Trades and Technical
- Organization: Habitat for Humanity
- Learning activity: Students from Wood Technics; Plumbing; Electrical; Heating, Ventilating, Air Conditioning, and Refrigeration (HVAC/R); Masonry; Landscape Horticulture; and other technical programs participated in building a new home for a deserving family.
- Number served: Family of 3

Instructors/Lead: Don Jaworski

NWTC students involved in project: 60+

Habitat for Humanity Home at 1324 Day Street

- Division: Trades and Technical
- Organization: Habitat for Humanity
- Learning activity: Architectural Technology students helped with framing, siding, roofing, finish and trim work, and painting.
- Number served: Family of 5

Instructor: Wendy Follett

NWTC students involved in project: 28

Repair of Drill Press

- Division: Trades and Technical
- Organization: Bay View Middle School
- Learning activity: Welding students repaired cast iron drill press table. Middle School students observed the process of learning how to analyze the job and make the appropriate repairs to the outdated, but still-usable table.
- Number served: Many

Instructor: Russ Johnson

NWTC students involved in project: 14

Rural Studio – American Institute of Architects

- Division: Trades and Technical
- Organization: American Institute of Architects, WI NE Chapter
- Learning activity: Architectual Technology students helped the Institute with presenting the film “The Rural Studio” at NWTC.
- Number served: 25

Instructor: Wendy Follett

NWTC students involved in project: 65
Service Learning

“All in for the Holidays”

- Division: Business & Information Technology
  Instructor: Nancy L. Colden
- Organization: Salvation Army
- Learning activity: Marketing Management students staged a fundraiser with all proceeds going to the Salvation Army – totaled $5,000 donation.
- Number served: Many

Suamico Village Park

- Division: Trades and Technical
  Instructors: Norm Coller & Jack Tribe
- Organization: Village of Suamico
- Learning activity: Gas Utility students helped WPS with the installing of lights for Suamico’s athletic field. Students experienced working at a remote jobsite, scheduling, installation around existing facility, record keeping, and mapping of project.
- Number served: Village of Suamico

Traffic Control – Criminal Justice Students

- Division: Public Safety
  Instructors: Ian Nishimoto, Mike Albertson, Tom Hinz
- Organizations: Hmong New Year Celebration, American Heart Walk, Hispanic Parade, Green Bay East-West football game, Breast Cancer Walk, Noodleini Run/Walk, NWTC Love Lights Tribute, NWTC Alumni Craft Fair, Halloween Fiesta
- Learning activity: Criminal Justice students conducted traffic, security, and safety control for various events and checked parking lots, grounds, and building security.
- Number served: 7,000

Preventative Maintenance Service

- Division: Trades and Technical
  Instructor: Ken Delcore
- Organization: Humane Society
- Learning activity: HVAC/R students performed maintenance on the fresh air intake and exhaust systems and inspected the mechanical piping systems for the heating systems.
- Number Served: Many